PRESIDENT AT WORK
President Will Go to Congress
Next Week Asking
for Broad Powers

Washington, August 11.—While President Harding met with his cabinet at the White House today to consider further government action in the grave industrial situation, representatives of the 16 standard railroad unions went into session, eight city blocks away to formulate a policy of sympathetic action that will make the railroad strike more effective.

These developments were in prospect as the two meetings got under way this morning:

1—The striking railway shopmen will reject the president's proposition of Monday for the men to return to work pending a decision on the contentious seniority question by the railway labor board.

2—Other railroad unions, including the four powerful brotherhoods, will agree upon a policy of sympathetic action to support the strikers without authorizing a general railroad strike.

3—This will be accomplished by authorization of "individual" or "voluntary strikes" by members of affiliated unions whenever or wherever in the judgment of the workers their equipment or working conditions are such as to be prejudicial to life or limb.

4—Union men will be permitted to decide for themselves whether they want to stay on the job—the result of which is expected to be a slow, progressive walkout on the roads by all classes of railroad labor.

5—Railroad labor unions not now on strike will combine in a statement of policy to the government, inviting attention to the gravity of the situation and intimating that unless relief measures are soon found nation wide paralysis of transportation is inevitable.

6—President Harding will await the replies of both unions and railway executives, meeting in New York today and will then go to congress next week with a special message asking for a legislative grant of broad powers to deal with the situation.

EXECUTIVES TO ACCEPT.

New York, August 11.—President Harding's second set of proposals for settling the national strike of railway shopmen was formally presented to the railroad executives at their meeting here today. They were discussed at length during the morning session but no decisive decision was reached. Before adjournment for luncheon, a committee was appointed to draft a reply to the president.

New York, August 11.—Presidents of a majority of the 148 main line railroads of America will go into secret session in the New Haven board room at Grand Central station today to consider President Harding's second proposal for an armistice in the rail shopmen's strike.

While none of the executives are inclined to be glib, before entering the counsel chamber yet more than one admits that they expect tonight to witness them coming to an agreement.

There is no great diversity of opinion as to what that agreement might be. Those few who are prone to speculate at all upon the probable outcome said they believed that the presidential plan would be accepted, though several strong reservations might be made to placate certain officials, who believing that they have the strike won on their respective roads, see no reason why they should give in.

Briefly, Harding's present proposal calls for:

The carriers to take the strikers back.

The strikers to go back to work.

Both sides to submit the question of seniority to the railroad labor board for a definite decision.

It is a matter of seniority that is causing some of the executives to hold out against any agreement not dictated by themselves alone.

FRENCH DRIVE OUT
ALSACE GERMANS

Paris, August 11.—Five hundred German residents of Alsace have been notified that they will be expelled within forty hours, according to information from Strasbourg today. Germans expelled from Alsace-Lorraine under the new French regulations must leave all their property behind.

BROKEN CONTROL
WIRES ARE BLAMED

Naperville, Ills., Aug. 11.—Broken or jammed control wires were believed today to have been the cause of the airplane crash here last evening in which Edward W. Schillo, former racing driver and Leroy Keller, overseas aviator, plunged to death.

The plane was enroute here from Chicago and while 3,000 feet over the city turned into a nose dive and landed in the middle of one of the principal streets. Both occupants of the plane were seen waving their arms as they made their death plunge. Both bodies were burned to a crisp in the fire which followed the crash.

Theory Advanced That Stationing of Soldiers on

Rockford, Ills., August 11.—Eight men, four of them soldiers, were injured by flaming embers, and flying debris in a fire which threatened the destruction of Camp Grant, early today. The fire was of alleged incendiary origin and caused damage of $90,000.

Investigation by both military and civil authorities, were under way to fix responsibility for the alleged incendiary. One theory was that the blaze resulted from the stationing of soldiers for strike duty.

Women members of families of soldiers in the camp mounted roofs and helped the bucket brigades check fires which raged in nearly a dozen buildings. Dynamite was about to be used to level barracks when the flames were finally put under control.

Fire Chief H. Hametson of the City fire department, said he was told the fire broke out in several places at the same time and that circumstances pointed strongly to the work of incendiaries.

The fire swept through the frame buildings of the camp like tinder and the light from the flames cast a lurid glow over the entire city.

DEMOCRATIC RACES
IN DOUBT BEFORE
OFFICIAL COUNT

Attorney General, Treasurer and Supreme Court
Judge Not Certain

Columbus, August 11.—The official count alone, it appears today will determine who are the Democratic nominees for attorney general, state treasurer and one of the Democratic candidates for state supreme judge.

On the face of latest returns, B. F. McDonald, Newark, was ahead in the race for the attorney generalship, Hiller, Columbus, seemed to have won the nomination for state treasurer and T. D. Price, New Lexington, was leading James W. Tarbell, Georgetown for one of the Democratic nominations for state supreme judge. Stanley Matthews, of Cincinnati, appears certain of being one of the Democratic nominees for the supreme court judgeship.

Figures thus far compiled in the close races are as follows:

State Treasurer: Democrats: Hiller 64,328; Deweese, 62,473; Nelson 58,749.

Attorney General: Democrats: McDonald 38,758; Smith 38,600; Young 37,566; Williams 38,769; Claypool 33,336; Seney 27,475.

Missing precincts, of which there are 161 in the race for attorney general and 598 for state treasurer, may yet change the results, although Hiller's nomination is considered practically assured.

For supreme court judge, the Democratic vote is: Matthews 69,240; Price 57,171; Tarbell 53,709; Dunlap 43,650; Bodey 36,727; Babst 33,504. In this race there are 160 precincts still missing.

Practically complete figures in the Republican race for governor give Carmi A. Thompson a lead of 110,404 over his nearest opponent, Congressman Charles L. Knight. C. Homer Durand, the wet candidate being third. The vote stands, Thompson, 184,006; Knight 73,602; Durand 50,523. Democrats: Donahoe, 132,780; Johnson 51,141; Duffy, 46,258.

It is a far cry from command of an artillery brigade in the battle of St. Mihiel to the quiet of an Episcopalian pulpit in California. Yet that is the march about to be completed by Colonel Arthur P. S. Hyde, U.S. Army veteran of three wars during his twenty-six years of service, who has just arrived in San Francisco from Port Amador, Panama Canal Zone.

LITTLE PROSPECT OF SETTLEMENT OF
STRIKE IN JOLIET

Fear "Big Four" Walk-out
May Spread to Other Points

Joliet, Ill., August 11.—With the eyes of the railroad men the country over watching the stand taken by "big four" brotherhood men here against state troops, prospects of an early settlement of the walkout on the Elgin, Joliet and Eastern railroad appeared to be waning today.

Another conference was planned between railroad officials and brotherhood leaders today but optimism had given place to pessimism.

"Move the troops from around the yards," was the union demand. "Impossible," was the retort of railroad and civic authorities.

Various plans under discussion to bring about the return to work of the brotherhood men whose walkout has tied the operation of the railroad, were to permit brotherhood men to enter the shops and yards without going through the strict military challenging by sentries, or to withdraw the soldiers from around the shops and replace them by civil guards.

Joliet is the first city in the country where the "big four" men have joined the striking shopmen and fear that their action may spread to other railroad centers brought five labor leaders to the city today.

They were: R. T. Bruce, deputy vice president of the grand lodge of trainmen; Parks Kennedy, general chairman of the trainmen of Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad; M. C. Carey, deputy vice president of the railroad conductors; J. A. Emerson, general chairman of the Chicago and Alton railroad trainmen, and C. C. Hernon, general chairman of the Elgin, Joliet and Eastern trainmen.

DEADLOCK HOLDS
ALLIED MEETING
OVER INDEMNITY

London, August 12.—Hope that Great Britain and France would reconcile their differences and reach an agreement upon German indemnity was strengthened this afternoon. The air had cleared and there were indications that progress was being made towards a compromise by which Germany would get modified moratorium. Both the British and French were said to be making concessions.

"The conference still lives, but it is barely alive," said the official British spokesman after the morning meeting of Premier Lloyd George of Britain; Premier Poincare, of France, and Premier Theunis, of Belgium.

The premiers decided to meet again this afternoon. Premier Lloyd George is using all his famous persuasive powers to secure French support for the British proposals providing for reduced indemnity a reparation moratorium and stricter supervision of German finances.

OPERATORS AND MINERS WRITE
NEW PAY SCALE

Members of Sub-Committee
at Joint Conference
Begin Work

WILL END PARALYSIS
Failure Believed Impossible
As Terms Already Are Agreed Upon.

Cleveland, August 11.—Miners and operators, members of the sub-scale committee, appointed at the joint conference late yesterday, today went into executive session to write the scale which will end the coal strike which has tied up production in all union and some non-union fields for nearly nineteen weeks, and brought the nation to the brink of its most serious fuel famine.

The sub-scale committee consists of two miners and two operators from each state in the central competitive field—Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and western Pennsylvania—as well as the officers of the international union of mine workers and the officers of the conference. In all, 22 men sat down at the conference table at the Hotel Hollenden today to find a way to adjust the differences and reopen the mines.

Failure, it was confidently said by men representing either side of the controversy was impossible, as the terms had already been agreed upon. The 1920 wage scale will be accepted, with all of its major provisions, including the check off, unchanged. It is probable however, that a fact-finding body composed of miners and operators will be provided to ascertain the facts upon which a new scale effective April 1, 1923, shall be based. This body, it is said, would not be an arbitral commission but its duty would be to prepare the data upon which a just wage scale may be determined.

Officially re-presented at the conference today was an annual coal production of 40,030,000 tons—approximately 20 percent of the total annual production of the basing field. It was said, however that between 60,000,000 and 70,000,099 tons additional had representatives and that these were prepared to join as soon as assured that a scale would be written. They were expected to appear when the joint conference is reconvened.

Boost Price Of Coal From West Virginia Districts

Raise Indicated By Unofficial Announcement of Revised
"Fair Price" Schedule Said to Be Authorized
By Secretary of Commerce Hoover.

Huntington, W. Va., August 11.—A heavy increase in the price of coal mined in the West Virginia fields was indicated today by the unofficial announcement of a revised "fair price" schedule said to have been authorized by Secretary of Commerce Hoover at Washington.

The federal fuel distribution committee here refused to verify the price list, but declared the new schedule was "tentative and would be announced officially in Washington soon." According to information received by a coal operator, schedules were to be as follows:

For the Kanawha district of West Virginia nut and slack coal was boosted from $3.25 to $4.50 per ton; mine run, $3.50 to $4.75 and lump $3.75 to $4.90.

For the New River district, nut and slack from $3.25 to $4.25; mine

Three Killed in Explosion Aboard Adriatic 300 Miles
East of Portland, Me., Early Friday—Four Drown
As Tug Boat Overturns.

Rockland, Me., Aug. 11.—At least five persons were killed in the explosion aboard the White Star liner Adriatic, according to a wireless message picked up by the government station here today. The message stated that many passengers were injured in the blast.

Following the explosion, which rocked the big liner, flames shot skyward as high as the mast head, said the information reaching here.

On Board Steamship Adriatic At Sea, By Wireless, August 11.—A terrific explosion, which was followed by fire, occurred in hold No. 3, of this famous old White Star liner shortly after midnight. Captain David not knowing the seriousness of the consequences, sent out a wireless call, saying that he might need assistance. It was announced by the ship's master that two men—both employees in the fire room—had been killed. Another is missing.

All the passengers are safe. After slowing the vessel down to ascertain the damage Captain David ordered full speed ahead. In the meantime stewards and other officers of the ship assured passengers that there was no danger.

New York, August 11.—Two men—a fireman and a trimmer—were killed in an explosion aboard the Adriatic early today while that steamer was about 300 miles east of Portland, Me., on its way to New York.

The following messages from the Captain of the Adriatic was given out at the offices of the White Star line here:

"Explosion in No. 3 hold where coal is stored. Reduced speed to twelve knots. No structural damage to the ship."

A later radio said:

"Vessel now proceeding under full speed. One fireman, one trimmer killed, one fireman missing; one electrician, one leading fireman and three other firemen seriously injured."

The ship was about 300 miles off the American coast and was pursuing her normal course and speed when the explosion took place. There are between 600 and 700 passengers on board. Captain David immediately began an investigation.

Smoke was pouring from the hold and the fire crew went to work, aided by the other seamen.

The bunker coal in No. 3 hold caught fire but the blaze did not burn through the ship's structure. The sailors poured tons of water upon the blaze.

The American liner George Washington reported by wireless that she was coming to the assistance of the

NEW TROUBLE SEEN

Threat of Walkout On Part of Marine Workers
Is Heard.

Washington, Aug. 11.—The end of the coal strike, was said by government officials today to be in sight.

They based their optimistic predictions on the reports of government observers from the department of labor sent to Cleveland to watch the course of the joint conference there between John L. Lewis, of the United Mine Workers, and bituminous operators of the central competitive field.

These agents reported by telegraph to Secretary of Labor Davis today that the situation was "rapidly clearing" and they believed that negotiations now under way would bring a majority of the striking miners back to the mines within a week or ten days.

Settlement of the bituminous strike would be followed almost immediately according to officials by peace in the anthracite fields thus bringing completely to an end the long, nineteen weeks tie up in both industries.

Meanwhile soft coal production is steadily increasing, according to reports to federal fuel director Spencer. These reports stated that the mechanical conditions of roads serving the producing areas of West Virginia and Kentucky are bettering.

The threat of a strike of seamen and marine workers on the Great Lakes, tying up coal movements to the impoverished northwest, was causing Spencer and his associates distinct apprehension today.

Chairman Montgomery, Newark is slated to again head the committee.

New faces on the new state central committee include State Senator Bender, Cleveland; Judge C. S. Younger, Celina, and Dow Aiken, Bellefontaine.

Columbus, Aug. 11.—Alleged refusal of Col. Carmel A. Thompson, Republican nominee for governor, to deny the report that Attorney Homer C. Durand, Coshocton, recent unsuccessful candidate for the G. O. P. gubernatorial nomination, was "a vote puller in order to kill off the wet votes of other candidates" is said to be chiefly responsible for intimations that Durand may enter the fall campaign as an independent candidate for Governor.

SEVEN MEET DEATH IN ACCIDENTS TO VESSELS

Three Killed in Explosion Aboard Adriatic 300 Miles East of Portland Me., Early Friday—Four Drown As Tug Boat Overturns.

Rockland, Me., Aug. 11.—At least five persons were killed in the explosion aboard the White Star liner Adriatic, according to a wireless message picked up by the government station here today. The message stated that many passengers were injured in the blast.

Following the explosion, which rocked the big liner, flames shot skyward as high as the mast head, said the information reaching here.

On Board Steamship Adriatic At Sea, By Wireless, August 11.—A terrific explosion, which was followed by fire, occurred in hold No. 3, of this famous old White Star liner shortly after midnight. Captain David not knowing the seriousness of the consequences, sent out a wireless call, saying that he might need assistance. It was announced by the ship's master that two men—both employees in the fire room—had been killed. Another is missing.

All the passengers are safe. After slowing the vessel down to ascertain the damage Captain David ordered full speed ahead. In the meantime stewards and other officers of the ship assured passengers that there was no danger.

New York, August 11.—Two men—a fireman and a trimmer—were killed in an explosion aboard the Adriatic early today while the steamer was about 300 miles east of Portland, Me., on its way to New York.

The following messages from the Captain of the Adriatic was given out at the offices of the White Star line here:

"Explosion in No. 3 hold where coal is stored. Reduced speed to twelve knots. No structural damage to the ship."

A later radio said: "Vessel now proceeding under full speed. One fireman, one trimmer killed, one fireman missing; one electrician, one leading fireman and three other firemen seriously injured."

The ship was about 300 miles off the American coast and was pursuing her normal course and speed when the explosion took place. There are between 600 and 700 passengers on board. Captain David immediately began an investigation.

Smoke was pouring from the hold and the fire crew went to work, aided by the other seamen.

The bunker coal in No. 3 hold caught fire but the blaze did not burn through the ship's structure. The sailors poured tons of water upon the blaze.

The American liner George Washington reported by wireless that she was coming to the assistance of the

END OF COAL STRIKE IS NOW THOUGHT NEAR

Government Officials Confident That Tie-up is About Over.

NEW TROUBLE SEEN

Threat of Walkout On Part of Marine Workers Is Heard.

Washington, Aug. 11.—The end of the coal strike, was said by government officials today to be in sight.

They based their optimistic predictions on the reports of government observers from the department of labor sent to Cleveland to watch the course of the joint conference there between John L. Lewis, of the United Mine Workers, and bituminous operators of the central competitive field.

These agents reported by telegraph to Secretary of Labor Davis today that the situation was "rapidly clearing" and they believed that negotiations now under way would bring a majority of the striking miners back to the mines within a week or ten days.

Settlement of the bituminous strike would be followed almost immediately according to officials by peace in the anthracite fields thus bringing completely to an end the long, nineteen weeks tie up in both industries.

Meanwhile soft coal production is steadily increasing, according to reports to federal fuel director Spencer. These reports stated that the mechanical conditions of roads serving the producing areas of West Virginia and Kentucky are bettering.

The threat of a strike of seamen and marine workers on the Great Lakes, tying up coal movements to the impoverished northwest, was causing Spencer and his associates distinct apprehension today.

HAROLD F. M'CORMICK MARRIES MME. WALSKA WHILE DAUGHTER ENROUTE TO MEET HER FIANCEE

Pais, August 11.—Harold F. McCormick, multi-millionaire manufacturer of Chicago, and Mme. Ganna Walska, beautiful Polish grand opera singer, were married here this morning.

Mr. McCormick is the father of 17-year-old Mathilde McCormick who has just gone from Paris to Switzerland to meet her suitor, Major Max Oser, 47-year-old riding master. McCormick's first wife, Edith Rockefeller McCormick, whom he married on Nov. 26, 1895, secured a divorce from him. She is a daughter of John D. Rockefeller.

Mme. Walska has just been divorced from Alexander Cochran, formerly known as the richest bachelor in the United States. He is the owner of a great carpet making industry at Yonkers, New York, but spends a great deal of his time abroad.

Mr. McCormick met Madame Walska when she was with the Chicago Opera Company—an institution of which he was a liberal patron. Even before Mme. Walska got her divorce it was reported that Mr. McCormick was in love with her and would marry her if the opportunity offered.

Mr. McCormick recently underwent an operation in Chicago. As soon as he recovered he came to Paris. He is said by his friends to have been greatly benefited by the operation.

Mrs. McCormick, first wife of the groom is still in Chicago. It was reported that she was to remarry and that her choice was her secretary, a citizen of Switzerland. This report was never confirmed.

Mrs. McCormick and her daughters Mathilde and Muriel, lived for many years in Switzerland.

EUROPEAN MINERS WILL NOT TAKE PART IN STRIKE

Frankforton Main, Germany, Aug. 11.—All possibility of European labor intervention in the American coal strike ended Thursday when debate upon the subject was closed in the congress of International Federation of Miners.

Before the debate closed William Mitch, one of the American delegates argued that the British miners were in a position to give tremendous support to the American strikers. He declared that if the British miners would put an embargo upon British coal consigned to the United States it would go far in assisting the American strikers to win a victory. The British delegates promised to call the attention of the British federation of miners to this point upon their return home.

Styles

Night dresses take to varied styles in the exquisite handmade lingerie that is featured at exclusive shops, they are featured in varied necklines, some with lace, others without, and the newest models are sleeveless, or nearly so. A novel and interesting neck finish is shown in the gown sketched. It is achieved by slender bands of the crepe de chine which interlace on the shoulders, giving soft, graceful lines. This idea is borrowed from the Jenny dresses created last February.

The other models in the sketch illustrate a new kind of bodice for the chemise, the curved top with ribbon sides. Mauve crepe de chine and beige lace are used. Triple voile de sole is used for the attractive chemise, which prefers only a few pleats at the side and a diamond monogram to stamp its individuality on a careless world.

BLUE LAWS PUT INTO EFFECT IN PIQUA BY MAYOR

Because so-called "blue law" advocated in Piqua protested against motion picture theaters, there operating on Sundays, Mayor A. W. DeWeese Thursday took steps to give them a "dose of their own medicine," when he ordered the city closed up tight on Sundays, starting next.

The order of Mayor DeWeese closes every place of business in the city on Sunday, forbidding Sunday work altogether, with the exception of workers on the electric light plant and those employed in delivering milk. The order is similar to that put in effect by the mayor of Spencerville as an answer to the protests of certain people against operation of theaters on Sunday some time ago. The Spencerville Mayor attempted to close up the municipal light plant but was halted by the State Utilities Commission.

Picture shows have been operating in Piqua for three Sundays. After ministers had raised objections to Sunday shows, Mayor DeWeese in a public announcement said he would put the Blue Laws into full effect if the theaters are interfered with. He declared the shows are the poor man's chance for enjoyment and that he would not interfere with the Sunday shows.

When the minister continued their protests, DeWeese ordered the Blue Laws into effect, beginning Sunday. Sunday newspapers cannot even be sold in the city and publishers are becoming aroused over the action.

MICHIGAN SEEKS TO OPEN MINES

Lansing, Mich., August 11.—Governor Alex. J. Groesbeck was to meet John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America in Cleveland today to discuss arrangements for opening mines in the Saginaw Valley under State control.

The governor also expects to meet with the governors of Ohio, Pennsylvania, Indiana, Kentucky, and West Virginia to enlist help for a concerted drive on the interstate commerce commission to open the coal gateways in the Ohio Valley. This would release coal for Michigan and other states. Gov. Groesbeck left Lansing last night by motor for Cleveland too late to be made acquainted with the criticism of his efforts yesterday by Herbert Hoover.

OLEs MAY RUN AS INDEPENDENT IN FALL

Youngstown O. Aug. 11.—Ex-Mayor George L. Oles, may head an independent ticket for governor of Ohio at the November election, according to word going the rounds here today. "It looks as if I would have a wonderful chance to be elected. People throughout the state are not satisfied with the results of both Republican and Democratic primaries," declared Youngstown's famous ex-mayor.

"I believe we should hold an independent convention in Youngstown next week and nominate a straight independent ticket for all state offices just as the old line parties have done. Thompson received only 172,000 votes on the Republican ticket and there were 250,000 Republican votes he did not get. Donahy got only 118,000 votes as Democratic nominee leaving 100,000 vote, in his party which he failed to receive. That makes 350,000 votes that I would get. There are about 500,000 voters that did not take part at all in the primaries on either ticket. That makes about 850,000 I believe a good independent candidate could get.

FIRE IS DISCOVERED

Boys playing with matches or cigarette are held responsible by fire officials for a small blaze in a barn owned by Barton Smith, near the Western Ohio Creamery, at 3:55 o'clock Thursday afternoon. Firemen used chemicals to extinguish the blaze, which caused small damage. The fire started under the flooring in the barn.

WHAT DOES SHE MEAN BY THAT?

Chicago, Aug. 11.—When Muriel McCormick was asked what she thought of her father's marriage to Madame Ganna Walska, she exclaimed excitedly: "What did you say? My father married to Walska."

When she was assured that dispatches to that effect had reached here, she ejaculated feelingly: "Oh, Lord!"

HARMONY REIGNS AMONG DEMOCRATS

Columbus, August 11.—Harmony reigns in the Democratic fold.

First, comes the announcement of the selection of Thomas J. Duffy, Columbus, an unsuccessful candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor as temporary chairman and keynote speaker of the state convention to be held here on Aug. 22.

Then former State Supreme Judge J. G. Johnson, Springfield, also an unsuccessful aspirant for the Democratic nomination for governor, announces that he is going to do considerable stumping during the campaign as soon as he returns from his vacation. Plans for the convention are being made by Vic Donahy, New Philadelphia, Democratic candidate for governor, George White, Marietta, national committeeman and W. W. Durbin, Xenon, chairman of the Democratic state central committee.

The Democratic state central committee, scheduled to meet August 21, just one day before the opening of the Democratic state convention, is expected to approve these plans.

RAIL WORKERS ARE SHOT DOWN IS WORD

Cleveland, August 11.—William H. Down, 28, and Fritz Forschner, 23, employees of the Collinwood shops of the New York Central here, were shot down on their way home from work early today, dying before they could reach the hospital. Their assailant is believed to have mistaken them for men recently imported as strike breakers. Down had been employed at the shops for nearly ten years, while Forschner was also an employee of several years' standing.

Charles Schweitzer and William Johnson were badly beaten by men said to have been strike sympathizers.

ESCAPES IN CROWD ON WAY TO JAIL

Cincinnati, August 11.—Dewitt Parker, 25, of Indianapolis Ind. who was arrested at Portland Tenn., for holding up the cashier of an Alert Ind. bank last May and robbing the institution of $1600 in cash and $70,000 in bonds, escaped from an Indiana sheriff here Thursday night as they were getting off a train in the Pennsylvania station.

The prisoner was handcuffed but managed to dodge through groups of persons meeting the train so that the sheriff dared not fire at him and he reached the street and disappeared. He was brought here by Sheriff Harry Braden of Greensburg, Ind., who meant to spend the night in Cincinnati, before taking Parker on to face the charges against him at Alert.

CHOLERA FOLLOWS TYPHOON IN CHINA

Shanghai, August 11.—Cholera is adding horror in the wake of the typhoon which destroyed Swatow with a loss of anywhere from 20,000 to 50,000 lives.

United States Consul General Cunningham today received a cable appeal from the United States consul at Swatow for supplies to fight the cholera epidemic which he said was now sweeping the city as a result of the pollution of the water by dead bodies of animals and human beings.

SPREAD NET FOR BOMB THROWERS

San Bernardino, Cal., August 11.—Facing the greatest crisis of the railroad strike, federal and local officers here today spread a huge dragnet for mystery bombers who early today hurled twenty-three deadly missiles into the Santa Fe yards, terrorizing the district for miles around.

Only one man was hurt, Deputy Marshal Alverson being burned when a "dud" found at the scene of the blasts, exploded as it was being taken in an automobile to a chemist for analysis.

STATES MUST AID THEMSELVES IS WORD

Washington, Aug. 11.—States having idle coal mines within their borders must take steps to help themselves and not rely entirely upon the producing mines of West Virginia and Kentucky, it was stated today by officials in charge of federal distribution.

This applies, Secretary of Commerce Hoover said to all states, whatever their proximity to the producing fields.

Questioned as to the efforts being made to get coal into Michigan, over Henry Ford's railroad, officials said Michigan had not obtained more than its fair allotment of coal under any circumstances as the needs of other states would have to be considered.

The order is similar to that put in effect by the mayor of Spencerville as an answer to the protests of certain people against operation of theaters on Sunday some time ago. The Spencerville Mayor attempted to close up the municipal light plant but was halted by the State Utilities Commission.

Picture shows have been operating in Piqua for three Sundays. After ministers had raised objections to Sunday shows, Mayor DeWeese in a public announcement said he would put the Blue Laws into full effect if the theaters were interfered with. He declared the shows are the poor man's chance for enjoyment and that he would not interfere with the Sunday shows.

When the ministers continued their protests, DeWeese ordered the Blue Laws into effect, beginning Sunday. Sunday newspapers cannot even be sold in the city and publishers are becoming aroused over the action.

MICHIGAN SEEKS TO OPEN MINES

Lansing, Mich., August 11.—Governor Alex. J. Groesbeck was to meet John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America in Cleveland today to discuss arrangements for opening mines in the Saginaw Valley under State control.

The governor also expects to meet with the governors of Ohio, Pennsylvania, Indiana, Kentucky, and West Virginia to enlist help for a concerted drive on the interstate commerce commission to open the coal gateways in the Ohio Valley. This would release coal for Michigan and other states. Gov. Groesbeck left Lansing last night by motor for Cleveland too late to be made acquainted with the criticism of his efforts yesterday by Herbert Hoover.

OLEES MAY RUN AS INDEPENDENT IN FALL

Youngstown O., Aug. 11.—Ex-Mayor George L. Oles, may head an independent ticket for governor of Ohio at the November election, according to word going the rounds here today.

"It looks as if I would have a wonderful chance to be elected. People throughout the state are not satisfied with the results of both Republican and Democratic primaries," declared Youngstown's famous ex-mayor.

"I believe we should hold an independent convention in Youngstown next week and nominate a straight independent ticket for all state offices just as the old line parties have done. Thompson received only 172,000 votes on the Republican ticket and there were 250,000 Republican votes he did not get. Donahy got only 118,000 votes as Democratic nominee leaving 100,000 votes in his party which he failed to receive. That makes 350,000 votes that I would get. There are about 500,000 voters that did not take part at all in the primaries on either ticket. That makes about 850,000 I believe a good independent candidate could get.

WEST WINS OVER SWAIN IN CLINTON

Judge E. J. West, of Wilmington, long-time member of the Clinton County bar, was given the Republican nomination for prosecuting attorney in Clinton County at the primary Tuesday.

Judge West polled a total of 1,636 votes, while C. Luther Swain, one of the youngest members of the bar in that county was second with 1,411, and Prosecuting Attorney S. L. Gregory, seeking a second term, was third man with a vote of 1,211.

In the only other contest in Clinton County, County Auditor Harry Gaskill, seeking renomination, defeated his opponent R. P. Barrett, by a large majority.

FIRE IS DISCOVERED

Boys playing with matches or cigarette are held responsible by fire officials for a small blaze in a barn owned by Barton Smith, near the Western Ohio Creamery, at 3:55 o'clock Thursday afternoon. Firemen used chemicals to extinguish the blaze, which caused small damage. The fire started under the flooring in the barn.

WHAT DOES SHE MEAN BY THAT?

Chicago, Aug. 11.—When Muriel McCormick was asked what she thought of her father's marriage to Madame Ganna Walska, she exclaimed excitedly: "What did you say? My father married to Walska."

When she was assured that dispatches to that effect had reached here, she ejaculated feelingly: "Oh, Lord!"

HARMONY REIGNS AMONG DEMOCRATS

Columbus, August 11.—Harmony reigns in the Democratic fold.

First, comes the announcement of the selection of Thomas J. Duffy, Columbus, an unsuccessful candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor as temporary chairman and keynote speaker of the state convention to be held here on Aug. 22.

Then former State Supreme Judge J. G. Johnson, Springfield, also an unsuccessful aspirant for the Democratic nomination for governor, announces that he is going to do considerable stumping during the campaign as soon as he returns from his vacation. Plans for the convention are being made by Vic Donaher, New Philadelphia, Democratic candidate for governor, George Whitla, Marietta, national committeeman and W. W. Durbin, Kenton, chairman of the Democratic state central committee.

The Democratic state central committee, scheduled to meet August 21, just one day before the opening of the Democratic state convention, is expected to approve these plans.

RAIL WORKERS ARE SHOT DOWN IS WORD

Cleveland, August 11.—William H. Down, 23, and Fritz Forchner, 23, employees of the Collinwood shops of the New York Central here, were shot down on their way home from work early today, dying before they could reach the hospital. Their assailant is believed to have mistaken them for men recently imported as strike breakers. Down had been employed at the shops for nearly ten years, while Forchner was also an employee of several years' standing. Charles Schweitzer and William Johnson were badly beaten by men said to have been strike sympathizers.

ESCAPES IN CROWD ON WAY TO JAIL

Cincinnati, August 11.—Dewitt Parker, 25, of Indianapolis Ind. who was arrested at Portland Tenn., for holding up the cashier of an Alert Ind. bank last May and robbing the institution of $1600 in cash and $70,000 in bonds, escaped from an Indiana sheriff here Thursday night as they were getting off a train in the Pennsylvania station.

The prisoner was handcuffed but managed to dodge through groups of persons meeting the train so that the sheriff dared not fire at him and he reached the street and disappeared. He was brought here by Sheriff Harry Braden of Greensburg, Ind., who meant to spend the night in Cincinnati, before taking Parker on to face the charges against him at Alert.

CHOLERA FOLLOWS TYPHOON IN CHINA

Shanghai, August 11.—Cholera is adding horror in the wake of the typhoon which destroyed Swatow with a loss of anywhere from 20,000 to 50,000 lives.

United States Consul General Cunningham today received a cable appeal from the United States consul at Swatow for supplies to fight the cholera epidemic which he said was now sweeping the city as a result of the pollution of the water by dead bodies of animals, and human beings.

SPREAD NET FOR BOMB THROWERS

San Bernardino, Cal., August 11.—Facing the greatest crisis of the railroad strike, federal and local officers here today spread a huge dragnet for mystery bombers who early today hurled twenty-three deadly missiles into the Santa Fe yards, terrorizing the district for miles around.

Only one man was hurt, Deputy Marshal Alverson being burned when a "dud" found at the scene of the blasts, exploded as it was being taken in an automobile to a chemist for analysis.

STATES MUST AID THEMSELVES IS WORD

Washington, Aug. 11.—States, having idle coal mines within their borders must take steps to help themselves and not rely entirely upon the producing mines of West Virginia and Kentucky, it was stated today by officials in charge of federal distribution.

This applies, Secretary of Commerce Hoover said to all states, whatever their proximity to the producing fields.

Questioned as to the efforts being made to get coal into Michigan, over Henry Ford's railroad, officials said Michigan could not obtain more than its fair allotment of coal under any circumstances as the needs of other states would have to be considered.

GERMAN BAD F.M.T.H.

In some so-called "liberal" groups in this country the pose is to tear at France tooth and claw because of her attitude toward Germany. The German is represented as helpless, beggared, broken-spirited, humble, his face ground in the dirt. These "liberals" love to roll the phrase "French militarism" into every discussion. Germany is their pet and favorite martyr.

They need to review the German military violations of the treaty from time to time. It is a routine matter for allied control officers to find hidden weapons and war material. These include everything from battle-planes to rifles, from field-guns to gas shells, from howitzers to bayonets. It has been one long game of hide-and-seek, this business of disarming a Germany that solemnly promised to disarm. Harbors and forts and fortifications must all be examined constantly to keep the Teuton clawless and fangless.

Germany is now begging a moratorium. She sits before the world as a beggar with a tin cup in her hand. Supposedly she hasn't an extra mark to squander on anything except bare necessities of life and government. Just the same, the Council of Ambassadors must turn aside from consideration of the Teuton beggar's plea to warn him that he must destroy, immediately, his new fort on the Kiel Canal.

It was the familiar, stupid German stuff. Under the pretext of a naval gunnery and range-finding school the Teuton was building works that needed next to nothing to make them a fort commanding the entrance to the canal. The German is failing to destroy coast defense guns, is recruiting for her navy beyond the treaty strength and the new defenses at Kiel are no more than the last and most flagrant of a long series of recent violations.

Naturally, France watches Germany and fears her. Two invasions in a half-century, the known revengefulness of most of Germany and her wilful, continuous and brazen attempts to retain her weapons do not make for sound sleep and forgiveness west of the Rhine. The French have seen what they have seen and they know what they know.

RETURN OF PROSPERITY TO RUSSIA IS FORECAST.

A leading American financier says he is confident of the return of prosperity to Russia. A crowd of important oil men crossed recently with him, and there was much talk of the almost boundless oil wealth of Baku. He thought from what he heard that the exploiting of Russia will soon begin again, and that American capital and American engineers will take a leading part.

One of the late laws of the All-Russian Central Executive Committee recognizes most forms of private ownership both in land and commodities. It validates civil contracts, and even allows inheritance up to the value of about $4,500. But, as a British commentator observes, there are too many provisos and restrictions and too much doubt about Russian courts of law to encourage investment. Nevertheless it must be admitted that progress is being made when a Russian is allowed to own his own house and to carry on a hop in his own way.

The Russian paper currency is now one of the wonders of the world. It is only a few months since a million rubles went to the pound sterling.

WILSON BLAMED FOR EUROPEAN CONDITIONS.

Philadelphia Public Ledger.—The British business man wants no favors that will undermine his credit. He has never believed in sacrificing the future to the present.

But he does want fair play, and in the matter of his debt to America there are several matters that he would like to have put right.

There is, for instance, the matter of Mr. Wilson's "Fourteen Points." In the opinion of most Britishers, most of the troubles today in Europe, Asia and Africa were caused by the influence of Mr. Wilson's "Points" in the shaping of the Treaty of Versailles.

That new Wilsonian word—"Self-determination"—has brought revolution in Ireland, Egypt, India, Poland and the Balkans. It has split Europe into thirty-five fragments, while, at the same time, it left Germany virtually intact.

So, the average Englishman thinks that America should hold herself responsible for the damage wrought by her late President.

Nothing would do as much, at the moment, to increase the respect of Britain for America as a fair admission, by some eminent American, that the United States must be responsible for the mistakes of its former President.

TOM MARSHALL'S BACK.

Not only Congress, but Washington in general, drops work for a while when Thomas Riley Marshall and his wife come to town. From the Capitol all the way up Pennsylvania Avenue and spreading into the northwest the town wears a pleased smile. Tuesday Mrs. Marshall was the guest of a Senate women's organization which she formed during the war, and which still runs along with Mrs. Coolidge at the head of it. Homespun sense drips along whatever way her husband takes. He is not only sensible himself, but is the cause of momentary sense in others. The Senate ceases to be unnecessarily anxious about many things, and sits at the feet of Tom, clear-headed for the moment, while he sprays it with sense. President Harding is sorry he wasn't there when Marshall roamed through the White House. Yes, and Harding was really sorry. Everybody is sorry who misses a chance to see Tom Marshall.

Common sense, the humor of James Whitcomb Riley and old Jeffersonian democracy in a motorcar instead of a buggy—that was the combination Marshall brought to the Governor's chair in Indiana, and later to the vice presidency.

DO YOU KNOW?

With the use of an automobile the business conducted by a road salesman has increased from 40 to 100 per cent. Between six and eight towns a day are covered, whereas from one to four were formerly made. The car also is shown to have given the salesman an additional advantage by enabling him to carry advertising matter, which he can place at strategic points.

Washington reports that the total domestic coinage of the United States in the fiscal year just ended fell off by more than 350,000,000 pieces.

are burdened with sorrow and trouble—without their knowing it, in most cases.

Silent heroism is never published. You who sorrow and are in trouble, here is a stanza that will help you. It is an old English proverb. For every trouble under the sun There is a remedy, or there is none. If there is one, try to find it; If there is none, never mind it. Few men have ever lived who have uplifted life more by their courage of thought than Emerson. Here is his contribution to those who sorrow and are in trouble:

SORROW AND TROUBLE

These two little words have had more to do with the shaping of character and the world than any other two.

In pain were you born and given to time and immortality. "All great literature," says Hearn, "has its source in the rich soil of sorrow."

The Chinese and Japanese have a custom, so I have read, of composing poetry in time of pain and sorrow. Milton wrote his immortal "Paradise Lost" while blind. Tennyson produced "In Memoriam" to soothe his grief. It is said that when Goethe was told of the death of his son he replied: "Forward, across the dead," and plunged into his work, realizing more, then ever before its healing and rewarding power. It was the same Goethe who has given these lines to the world:

"Who ne'er his bread in sorrow ate—
Who ne'er the lonely midnight hours
Weeping upon his bed has sat—
He knows, ye not, ye Heavenly powers,"

Call the names of the great in literature—Scott, Byron, Poe, Longfellow, Twain, Hugo, Carlyle, Keats, Hawthorne, Stevenson, Irving—in sorrow bodily suffering and through trouble were their greatest works conceived.

Look into the lined face of Abraham Lincoln. Is any other biography necessary?

He who has influenced and sweetened character and human history more than any other human being who ever lived is known as "The Man of Sorrows," whose last breath was expelled upon a cross as He spoke to a criminal crucified at His side.

Only as we are sobered in darkness are we able to see the light. God walks around with folks who

HOPE ON.

Hope on, hope ever, say the seers, who're packed with wisdom to their ears, and have good sense to burn; "though things look dark," the sages say, "and crises face us every day, the good times will return." The wild men raise a frightful noise; but through it all the wise old boys keep saying, "Don't lose faith; 'tis true conditions are a scream, but shortly all these things will seem a pipe dream and a wraith." There is a carnival of crime, and undertakers spend their time embalming murdered men; but still the wise old sages cry, "These crazy times will soon pass by, and sense will come again." Suspended are established rules; the workmen throw down their tools at every passing whim; and still the sages make their cracks: "The world will soon get down to tacks, we'll all be in the swim." When I waded through the daily news I'm threatened with a case of blues, so many things are wrong; delirium each nation has, and life is like a Darktown jazz, that should be one sweet song. But while I'm sighing I can hear the cheer-up message of the seer, who does a grouch disdain; "These ragtime things will pass away, and there will dawn a better day, when we will all be sane."

GERMAN BAD FAITH.

In some so-called "liberal" groups in this country the pose is to tear at France tooth and claw because of her attitude toward Germany. The German is represented as helpless, beggared, broken-spirited, humble, his face ground in the dirt. These "liberals" love to roll the phrase "French militarism" into every discussion. Germany is their pet and favorite martyr.

They need to review the German military violations of the treaty from time to time. It is a routine matter for allied control officers to find hidden weapons and war material. These include everything from battle-planes to rifles, from field-guns to gas shells, from howitzers to bayonets. It has been one long game of hide-and-seek, this business of disarming a Germany that solemnly promised to disarm. Harbors and forts and fortifications must all be examined constantly to keep the Teuton clawless and fangless.

Germany is now begging a moratorium. She sits before the world as a beggar with a tin cup in her hand. Supposedly she hasn't an extra mark to squander on anything except bare necessities of life and government. Just the same, the Council of Ambassadors must turn aside from consideration of the Teuton beggar's plea to warn him that he must destroy, immediately, his new fort on the Kiel Canal.

It was the familiar, stupid German stuff. Under the pretext of a naval gunnery and range-finding school the Teuton was building works that needed next to nothing to make them a fort commanding the entrance to the canal. The German is failing to destroy coast defense guns, is recruiting for her navy beyond the treaty strength and the new defenses at Kiel are no more than the last and most flagrant of a long series of recent violations.

Naturally, France watches Germany and fears her. Two invasions in a half-century, the known revengefulness of most of Germany and her wilful, continuous and brazen attempts to retain her weapons do not make for sound sleep and forgiveness west of the Rhine. The French have seen what they have seen and they know what they know.

RETURN OF PROSPERITY TO RUSSIA IS FORECAST.

A leading American financier says he is confident of the return of prosperity to Russia. A crowd of important oil men crossed recently with him, and there was much talk of the almost boundless oil wealth of Baku. He thought from what he heard that the exploiting of Russia will soon begin again, and that American capital and American engineers will take a leading part.

One of the late laws of the All-Russian Central Executive Committee recognizes most forms of private ownership both in land and commodities. It validates civil contracts, and even allows inheritance up to the value of about $4,500. But, as a British commentator observes, there are too many provisos and restrictions and too much doubt about Russian courts of law to encourage investment. Nevertheless it must be admitted that progress is being made when a Russian is allowed to own his own house and to carry on a hop in his own way.

The Russian paper currency is now one of the wonders of the world. It is only a few months since a million rubles went to the pound sterling.

WILSON BLAMED FOR EUROPEAN CONDITIONS.

Philadelphia Public Ledger.—The British business man wants no favors that will undermine his credit. He has never believed in sacrificing the future to the present.

But he does want fair play, and in the matter of his debt to America there are several matters that he would like to have put right.

There is, for instance, the matter of Mr. Wilson's "Fourteen Points." In the opinion of most Britishers, most of the troubles today in Europe, Asia and Africa were caused by the influence of Mr. Wilson's "Points" in the shaping of the Treaty of Versailles. That new Wilsonian word—"Self-determination"—has brought revolution in Ireland, Egypt, India, Poland and the Balkans. It has split Europe into thirty-five fragments, while, at the same time, it left Germany virtually intact.

So, the average Englishman thinks that America should hold herself responsible for the damage wrought by her late President.

Nothing would do as much, at the moment, to increase the respect of Britain for America as a fair admission, by some eminent American, that the United States must be responsible for the mistakes of its former President.

TOM MARSHALL'S BACK.

Not only Congress, but Washington in general, drops work for a while when Thomas Riley Marshall and his wife come to town. From the Capitol all the way up Pennsylvania Avenue and spreading into the northwest the town wears a pleased smile. Tuesday Mrs. Marshall was the guest of a Senate women's organization which she formed during the war, and which still runs along with Mrs. Coolidge at the head of it. Homespun sense drips along whatever way her husband takes. He is not only sensible himself, but is the cause of momentary sense in others. The Senate ceases to be unnecessarily anxious about many things, and sits at the feet of Tom, clear-headed for the moment, while he sprays it with sense. President Harding is sorry he wasn't there when Marshall roamed through the White House. Yes, and Harding was really sorry. Everybody is sorry who misses a chance to see Tom Marshall.

Common sense, the humor of James Whitcomb Riley and old Jeffersonian democracy in a motorcar instead of a buggy—that was the combination Marshall brought to the Governor's chair in Indiana, and later to the vice presidency.

DO YOU KNOW?

With the use of an automobile the business conducted by a road salesman has increased from 40 to 100 per cent. Between six and eight towns a day are covered, whereas from one to four were formerly made. The car also is shown to have given the salesman an additional advantage by enabling him to carry advertising matter, which he can place at strategic points.

Washington reports that the total domestic coinage of the United States in the fiscal year just ended fell off by more than 350,000,000 pieces.

are burdened with sorrow and trouble—without their knowing it, in most cases.

Silent heroism is never published. You who sorrow and are in trouble, here is a stanza that will help you. It is an old English proverb. For every trouble under the sun there is a remedy, or there is none. If there is one, try to find it. If there be none, never mind it.

Few men have ever lived who have uplifted life more by their courage of thought than Emerson. Here is his contribution to those who sorrow and are in trouble:

"When the half-gods go
The Gods arrive."

FILM ACTOR INJURED

Los Angeles, Cal., August 11.—Eugene O'Brien motion picture actor, is in a critical condition at a Hollywood hospital today with internal injuries and a possible fracture of the skull as a result of having been run down by a motor truck while walking on a highway in the Hollywood hills. The Japanese driver of the truck, who said he did not see O'Brien walking hurried the actor to the hospital.

Today's Talk

by George Matthew Adams

SORROW AND TROUBLE

These two little words have had more to do with the shaping of character and the world than any other two.

In pain were you born and given to time and immortality. "All great literature," says Hearn, "has its source in the rich soil of sorrow."

The Chinese and Japanese have a custom, so I have read, of composing poetry in time of pain and sorrow. Milton wrote his immortal "Paradise Lost" while blind. Tennyson produced "In Memoriam" to soothe his grief. It is said that when Goethe was told of the death of his son he replied: "Forward, across the dead," and plunged into his work, realizing more, than ever before its healing and rewarding power. It was the same Goethe who has given these lines to the world:

"Who ne'er his bread in sorrow ate—
Who ne'er the lonely midnight hours
Weeping upon his bed has sat,—
He knows ye not, ye Heavenly powers!"

Call the names of the great in literature—Scott, Byron, Poe, Longfellow, Twain, Hugo, Carlyle, Keats, Hawthorne, Stevenson, Irving—in sorrow bodily suffering and through trouble were their greatest works conceived.

Look into the lined face of Abraham Lincoln. Is any other biography necessary?

He who has influenced and sweetened character and human history more than any other human being who ever lived is known as "The Man of Sorrows," whose last breath was expelled upon a cross as he spoke to a criminal crucified at his side.

Only as we are sobered in darkness are we able to see the light. God walks around with folks who

HOPE ON.

Hope on, hope ever, say the seers, who're packed with wisdom to their ears, and have good sense to burn; "though things look dark," the sages say, "and crises face us every day, the good times will return." The wild men raise a frightful noise; but through it all the wise old boys keep saying, "Don't lose faith; 'tis true conditions are a scream, but shortly all these things will seem a pipe dream and a wraith." There is a carnival of crime, and undertakers spend their time embalming murdered men; but still the wise old sages cry, "These crazy times will soon pass by, and sense will come again." Suspended are established rules; the workmen throw down their tools at every passing whim; and still the sages make their cracks: "The world will soon get down to tacks, we'll all be in the swim." When I waded through the daily news I'm threatened with a case of blues, so many things are wrong; delirium each nation has, and life is like a Darktown jazz, that should be one sweet song. But while I'm sighing I can hear the cheer-up message of the seer, who does a grouch disdain; "These ragtime things will pass away, and there will dawn a better day, when we will all be sane."

TRIO IS ARRESTED ON COMPLAINT OF IRATE HUSBAND

Grand Rapids, Mich., August 11.—He just says, "come," and they go. That was the simple explanation given today by Mrs. Elizabeth Sleeper, 20, mother of two children, and Mrs. Fanny Hyatt, 21, bride, who left their husbands in Cadillac and came to Grand Rapids, where they were found sharing a one-room apartment with Clarence Warner, 33, "six feet, tall and handsome."

Warner and Mrs. Sleeper, arraigned in police court, waived examination and were bound over to Superior court. There they pleaded not guilty and were remanded to jail. They will be tried in a week. Mrs. Hyatt, effected a reconciliation with her husband, who then refused to bring a charge against her.

Although refusing to discuss the case at any length, the women said that Warner exerted a strange influence over them. When he suggested they all move to Grand Rapids and live together, it seemed quite the natural thing to do.

Dublin, August 11.—Free state troops today control Cork and Clonmel, the two most important strongholds of the republicans in southwestern Ireland.

Irregular troops that fled from Cork before the advance of the Free State troops are moving into the interior of Kerry County, according to reports received here today. Owing to the cutting of communications the exact situation at Cork was obscured today.

All public buildings in Cork and Queenstown have been destroyed by the Republican irregulars before evacuating those cities, said advices from the south today.

THEY SAY WOMAN CAN'T KEEP SECRET

A still newly-enfranchised woman voter walked into a precinct voting place in Xenia City Tuesday.

Styles BY LENORE

Crepe marocain, because of its substantial weight and yet delightful suppleness is being used increasingly for the Summer Suit. Or, rather, the Summer suit, which has been a prominent feature of the fashions this season, has been made possible by this beautiful and extremely practical material, heavy enough in weight to hang well and cool enough to wear in the warmest weather.

How charmingly this fabric may be used is illustrated in the design sketched. Cut on the straight, box-like line which are so much liked by young girls this year, the coat is trimmed with three rows of cording at the bottom, and in the back and the front is ornamented by a simple design that is accomplished by quilting—an effect easily copied.

The three-quarter sleeves are slightly flared and linked with a long cord and balls of self-material. The skirt is entirely plain. Navy blue or black crepe may be used for this suit with white organdie collar.

SUSPECT ARRESTED IN RENAKER KILLING

Cincinnati, August 11.—Within an hour after a coroner's jury at Winchester, Ky., had returned a verdict saying that Leon Renaker, "turkey king" of America, who was found dead at his home with his skull crushed in sixteen days ago, came to his death at the hands of unknown persons, police of the Kentucky town and detectives from Cincinnati had arrested Scobee Hardman, 24, last night, and charged him with the murder.

Walter Renaker, a brother of the slain man, swore to the warrant issued for Hardman, who is said to have been an intimate friend of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Renaker. Hardman, the son of a wealthy farmer living seven miles from Winchester, had been under surveillance since the murder was discovered. He refused to comment on the charges against him other than to say, they were false. The police would assign no motive for the crime.

At the same hour Dr. Whaling gave his last Bible study and at three o'clock, Dr. J. M. Blackwood, of Pittsburgh, Pa., spoke on "America's Challenge." ORGAN RECITAL GIVEN AT CHURCH

An audience of about one hundred and fifty people including musicians of the city and friends witnessed the organ recital given at the First Presbyterian Church, Thursday evening, by Kyle Dunkle, of Long Island, who is spending his vacation in this city.

Mr. Dunkle, who is organist at the Episcopal Cathedral at Garden City, Long Island, is a musician of marked ability, and his program Thursday evening, was a compliment to the invited friends who were present at the performance.

INVESTIGATE TAX RETURNS ON INCOMES

Cincinnati, August 11—Investigation of income tax returns in the suburb of Mt. Healthy by agents of the Internal Revenue Department at Cincinnati has resulted in 200 tax evaders being called to time by the federal government.

One of the return dodgers had to pay $5,000 to "square" himself with the government while others had to pay $1,000 and lesser sums. The collector of internal revenue is still considering whether to take criminal action in addition to the penalties levied against the offenders. Other suburbs are under scrutiny and sale actions are promised throughout the city by the tax investigators.

TWO DIE AS PLANE FALLS

Naperville, Ill., August 11.—Two aviators were burned to death last night when their plane caught fire in midair. The burning plane fell in the heart of the town, hundreds of people having gathered to watch the stunts of the fliers.

The aviators were identified as Edward Schille, head of the Schille Motor Sales Co. of Chicago and Leroy Keller of Naperville. Schille was a well-known automobile driver.

The airplane caught fire during an attempted nose dive, preparatory to a landing near the town. The bodies, burned beyond recognition, were identified by means of a belt buckle and a watch which the aviators wore.

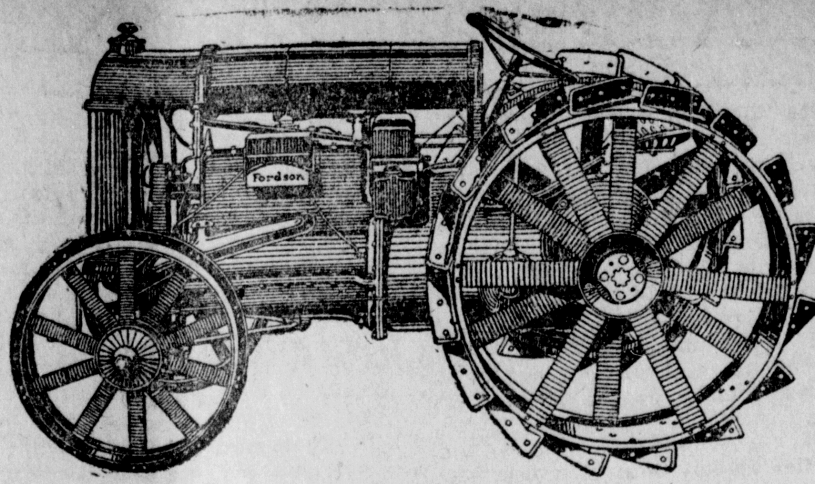

MOONSHINE SUCCEEDS MOON IN ROMANCE

Mrs. John Armitz

Ever since Romeo invaded Capulet's moon-bathed garden to whisper vows under fair Juliet's balcony the moon has had more or less to do with romance. With Mr. and Mrs. John Armitz, of San Francisco, however, it was moonshine. Mrs. Armitz was formerly Beulah Vidy, employed in the prohibition director's office. Armitz is a clerk at Fort Mason, and while tracing records of some moonshine, alleged to have been sold to soldiers he met Miss Vidy. Now they are married.

COAL PRODUCTION IS NOW INCREASING

Pittsburgh, Pa., August 11.—Soft coal production in the great fields of western and central Pennsylvania is increasing day by day under troop protection. Slowly but surely the mines in many sections are speeding up their output until today it has reached a gross tonnage which may have reached a complete paralysis of many of the great industries of this and other states.

Union and non-union mines are resuming, some in a small way, others on a much larger scale, with no concerted violence on the part of the strikers. Here and there a shot of dynamite is placed under some miner's house but that is all.

RECIPES FOR A DAY

Eggs a la Suisse—Take a baking dish and put two large tablespoons of butter in a little bit of milk, then layer of grated cheese, break a number of eggs and put them in the dish, being careful to keep them separate, season with salt and pepper, sprinkle cheese on top, put in the oven and as soon as the cheese is brown, serve.

Salmagundi—Cook for twenty minutes in boiling salted water two cups of macaroni; drain; have ready about half a pound of cold cooked beef cut in cubes. Put into a baking dish a layer of macaroni, then a layer of meat, a layer of sliced onion, then a layer of tomatoes (either canned or fresh). Dust over a little salt and pepper and dot with butter. Have a layer of cracker crumbs on top. Pour over any gravy you have; if not sufficient use a little milk or water. Bake forty-five minutes.

COOKING HINTS

No more crushed and misshapen stuffed eggs at the picnic luncheon if the following suggestion is followed. Keep on hand several fresh, clean egg boxes with the usual small compartments in which eggs are delivered. Each subdivision will be found just the right place to keep a stuffed egg in perfect condition during the trip. Roll each egg in waxed paper, twisting the end so that it shall project as a handle by which to pull the egg from its cubby-hole. Stand each egg on end in its own compartment, close the box and dismiss all care from your mind as to the packing of that particular item of the luncheon.

Fresh cracker dust makes a delicious thickening for milk soups. Simply stir in until of the right consistency just before serving.

SUGGESTIONS

In place of shelf paper for the china closet cut out pieces about six inches wide from some remnants of curtain net. After hemming them on the machine crochet a simple pattern into the edge and they are very pretty.

For cleaning the grater on which chocolate, lemon or in fact anything has been grated, use a small brush with stiff bristles, which can be purchased for five or ten cents. The ordinary dishcloth is sure to become fastened on the rough surface and also will not clean the holes properly.

From cheap, unbleached cloth, also old sheets and night dresses one can make quite serviceable chemises and corset covers to wear about the house, mornings.

Save pretty pictures from old calendars or magazines and when a new calendar comes with just advertising upon it paste on a picture.

Often the tiles in the hearth become so stained that water will not clean them. Try rubbing them with a piece of flannel soaked in turpentine, then polish with a dry cloth. The tiles will soon look fresh and new.

Washington, Aug. 21.—President Harding has nominated Colonel Robert C. Davis to be acting adjutant general of the army with the rank of major general.

"Oh, but it's a gran' and glorious feelin', after a hard day's play on Saturday, to come in at night all tired out and hungry, to find good stuff all spread out on the kitchen table.

"Yum! Yum! Biscuits, an' bread, pies, doughnuts, cookies, an' cakes, coffee-cakes an'—aw, well, it's great! Almost makes up for the monotony of five days of school."

NELLIE'S FIRST PARTY

Chapter 41

The feeling that they had a home made the girls so happy that Nellie constantly feared that something untoward would happen to dampen their joy. Cora held them strictly to her plan of buying a not noon day meal, so simplifying the housekeeping. But many little dainties, at least dainties to them, were cooked by one of the other on the shining stove—Nellie's pride.

Sunday they cooked all three meals and took delight in having their dinner as good as possible, a good-natured rivalry existing between them.

"Heaven can't be better than this," Nellie declared. "Just think, girls, it's home!"

It was really pathetic the emphasis the poor girl put upon the word how often she spoke it.

"A home at last!" Or "Think what I've missed all my life and home."

It was fortunate that both Cora and Gladys appreciated this feeling and the love of the poor little rooms, the only home she ever had known and upon which she poured all the enthusiasm of her nature.

Gradually the three girls added all they could to make it comfortable and attractive. Cora mentioned to her mother that they hoped to have some muslin curtains and Mrs. Baker wrote to them to send on the material and measurements and she would make them.

Nellie insisted upon buying the muslin, Gladys would buy ribbon to tie them back. Cora's share was her mother's sewing.

"What a difference curtains make," Gladys said, as they hung the crisp muslin at the windows, Nellie was almost speechless with delight.

"I wish everyone I know even Miss Carter, could see us see these lovely rooms," she finally said. "I guess they would think I was somebody! They used to treat me as if I was nothing but a machine to wait on them. I wish Miss Dorothy and Mr. George could know too."

"They probably would think it very small and mean," Gladys said, not seeing the waning look on Cora's face at her answer. "They give their servants better than this, I expect."

Nellie's face dropped.

"I wish they could see us so nicely fixed too," Cora said, "I am sure they would know it was better for us; and also that it helped us do our work better because we are happy."

Cora had persuaded Nellie to put off their party until the curtains were put up, but now she told her she might have it any time she chose. So Nellie invited Hilda, Lottie and two other young fellows who occasionally came to see Gladys, or take her out.

"We lack one man to make us an even number," Gladys remarked.

"That's because I haven't any beau and it's all right! One must be the waitress and who knows better than little Nellie how to wait on folks? I had experience enough at the Corners."

Everyone invited came. The little living room was gay with a few bright flowers, the refreshments in the kitchen. Nellie's "lace cookies" as she called them, made of oatmeal deliciously brown and crisp, the coffee ready to set on the fire when the time came and some candy Gladys had added at the last moment.

"Say, girls, isn't it scrumptious? I don't believe Miss Dorothy could have it any nicer." This time Gladys made no remark, Cora had warned her. Nellie never had been in a really nice home. She had not the slightest idea of the way wealthy people lived.

Mrs. Carter's boarding house; an errand to the back door of someone in the Corners had been her life. Since coming to New York she had been nowhere, save in the rooming houses. No wonder the dainty little room filled her starved soul with satisfaction. The guests arrived almost simultaneously. William was anxious to help but Nellie insisted it was her job, slowly recovering.

that no one was to do anything but have a good time. Which they proceeded to do after the fashion of happy young people. They played games, they talked and chatted, until Dugan came up to see if he was wanted; curiosity, his devotion to Nellie, who invariably used her brogue when talking to him, making him long to help.

The refreshments were voted delicious, they ate and drank all that had been provided. Then at 11 o'clock they went home, voting it one of the pleasantest evenings they had ever spent.

"Gee, but wasn't it grand?" Nellie said as they started to clear away. It was my debut, girls. I never was to a party before."

COAL PRODUCTION IS NOW INCREASING

Pittsburgh, Pa., August 11.—Soft coal production in the great fields of western, and central Pennsylvania is increasing day by day under troop protection. Slowly but surely the mines in many sections are speeding up their output until today it has reached a gross tonnage which may have a complete paralysis of many of the great industries of this and other states.

Union and non-union mines are resuming, some in a small way, others on a much larger scale, with no concerted violence on the part of the strikers. Here and there a shot of dynamite is placed under some miner's house but that is all.

MENU HINT
Breakfast. Grape Fruit. Cereal. Top Milk. French Omelet. Coffee. Buttered Toast.
Luncheon. Eggs a la Suisse. Nut Bread. Wafers. Salad Delight. Tea. Dinner. Salmagundi with Baked Potatoes. Bread. Beets with Butter. Cream Pie. Coffee.

RECIPES FOR A DAY

Eggs a la Suisse—Take a baking dish and put two large tablespoons of butter in a little bit of milk, then layer of grated cheese, break a number of eggs and put them in the dish, being careful to keep them separate, season with salt and pepper, sprinkle cheese on top, put in the oven and as soon as the cheese is brown, serve.

Salmagundi—Cook for twenty minutes in boiling salted water two cups of macaroni, drain, have ready about half a pound of cold cooked beef cut in cubes. Put into a baking dish a layer of macaroni, then a layer of meat, a layer of sliced onion, then a layer of tomatoes (either canned or fresh). Dust over a little salt and pepper and dot with butter. Have a layer of cracker crumbs on top. Pour over any gravy you have; if not sufficient use a little milk or water. Bake forty-five minutes.

COOKING HINTS
No more crushed and mishapen stuffed eggs at the picnic luncheon if the following suggestion is followed. Keep on hand several fresh, clean egg boxes with the usual small compartments in which eggs are delivered. Each subdivision will be found just the right place to keep a stuffed egg in perfect condition during the trip. Roll each egg in waxed paper, twisting the end so that it shall project as a handle by which to pull the egg from its cubby-hole. Stand each egg on end in its own compartment, close the box and dismiss all care from your mind as to the packing of that particular item of the luncheon.

Fresh cracker dust makes a delicious thickening for milk soups. Simply stir in until of the right consistency just before serving.

SUGGESTIONS
In place of shelf paper for the china closet cut out pieces about six inches wide from some remnants of certain net. After hemming them on the machine crochet a simple pattern into the edge and they are very pretty.

For cleaning the grater on which chocolate, lemon or in fact anything has been grated, use a small brush with stiff bristles, which can be purchased for five or ten cents. The ordinary dishcloth is sure to become fastened on the rough surface and also will not clean the holes properly.

From cheap, unbleached cloth, also old sheets and night dresses one can make quite serviceable chemises and corset covers to wear about the house, mornings. Save pretty pictures from old calendars or magazines and when a new calendar comes with just advertising upon it paste on a picture. Often the tiles in the hearth become so stained that water will not clean them. Try rubbing them with a piece of flannel soaked in turpentine, then polish with a dry cloth. The tiles will soon look fresh and new.

A Stenographer's Romance

BY JANE PHELPS

NELLIE'S FIRST PARTY

Chapter 41

The feeling that they had a home made the girls so happy that Nellie constantly feared that something untoward would happen to dampen their joy. Cora held them strictly to her plan of buying a not noon day meal, so simplifying the housekeeping. But many little dainties, at least dainties to them, were cooked by one or the other on the shining stove—Nellie's pride.

Sunday they cooked all three meals and took delight in having their dinner as good as possible, a good-natured rivalry existing between them.

"Heaven can't be better than this," Nellie declared. "Just think, girls, it's home!"

It was really pathetic the emphasis the poor girl put upon the word how often she spoke it.

"A home at last!" Or "Think what I've missed all my life and no home."

It was fortunate that both Cora and Gladys appreciated this feeling. This love of the poor little room, the only home she ever had known and upon which she poured all the enthusiasm of her nature.

Gradually the three girls added all they could to make it comfortable and attractive. Cora mentioned to her mother that they hoped to have some muslin curtains and Mrs. Baker wrote to them to send on the material and measurements and she would make them.

Nellie insisted upon buying the muslin, Gladys would buy ribbon to tie them back. Cora's share was her mother's sewing.

"What a difference curtains make," Gladys said, as they hung the crisp muslin at the windows. Nellie was almost speechless with delight.

"I wish everyone I know even Miss Carter, could see us see these lovely rooms," she finally said. "I guess they would think I was somebody! They used to treat me as if I was nothing but a machine to wait on them. I wish Miss Dorothy and Mr. George could know too."

"They probably would think it very small and mean," Gladys said, not seeing the waning look on Cora's face at her answer. "They give their servants better than this, I expect."

Nellie's face dropped.

"I wish they could see us so nicely fixed too," Cora said, "I am sure they would know it was better for us; and also that it helped us do our work better because we are happy."

Cora had persuaded Nellie to put off their party until the curtains were put up, but now she told her she might have it any time she chose. So Nellie invited Hilda, Lottie and two other young men, beside William and the young fellow who occasionally came to see Gladys, or take her out.

"We lack one man to make us an even number," Gladys remarked.

"That's because I haven't any beau and it's all right! One must be the waitress and who knows better than little Nellie how to wait on folks? I had experience enough at the Corners."

Everyone invited came. The little living room was gay with a few bright flowers, the refreshments in the kitchen. Nellie's "lace cookies" as she called them, made of Oatmeal deliciously brown and crisp, the coffee ready to set on the fire when the time came and some candy Gladys had added at the last moment.

"Say, girls, isn't it scrumptious? I don't believe Miss Dorothy could have it any nicer." This time Gladys made no remark. Cora had warned her. Nellie never had been in a really nice home. She had not the slightest idea of the way wealthy people lived.

Mrs. Carter's boarding house; an errand to the back door of someone in the Corners had been her life. Since coming to New York she had been nowhere, save in the rooming houses. No wonder the dainty little room filled her starved soul with satisfaction. The guests arrived almost simultaneously. William was anxious to help but Nellie insisted it was her job, that no one was to do anything but have a good time. Which they proceeded to do after the fashion of happy young people. They played games, they talked and chatted, until Dugan came up to see if he was wanted; curiosity, his devotion to Nellie, who invariably used her brogue when talking to him, making him long to help.

The refreshments were voted delicious, they ate and drank all that had been provided. Then at 11 o'clock they went home, voting it one of the pleasantest evenings they had ever spent.

"Gee, but wasn't it grand?" Nellie said as they started to clear away. It was my debut, girls. I never was to a party before."
